Abstract: The lifestyle and fashion retail market in India is expanding rapidly, driven by reasons such as increased disposable incomes, urbanization, and a trend toward branded retail. In addition, several global enterprises are entering the market, and new technologies have been embraced to improve the shopping experience. The Indian lifestyle and fashion retail sector is extremely competitive, with renowned local brands and an expanding presence of foreign retailers. This rivalry is spurred by causes such as the expanding e-commerce industry, shifting consumer preferences, and continued infrastructure and logistics development. While increased rivalry poses issues for certain firms, it also provides opportunity for innovation and expansion throughout the sector. The fashion and retail business in Kolkata has risen significantly as a result of the establishment of fashion and retail outlet stores such as Pantaloons, Reliance Trends, Shoppers Stop, Westside, Max and Zudio. This survey aims to determine which fashion and retail outlets are most popular with Kolkata customers. Furthermore, this study seeks to identify the elements that impact Kolkata customers' perceptions regarding the efficacy of fashion and lifestyle retail establishments.

Keywords: Lifestyle & retail market, retail outlets, Garrett Ranking.

INTRODUCTION

The fashion and lifestyle retail industry in India is one of the most speedily expanding businesses, with rapid fashion leading the way. Flexible supply chains for ultra-value brands, as well as brand loyalty for premium goods, are key growth drivers. As Indian marketers aim to make an item or brand appealing to consumers by stressing its better quality and uniqueness, the market is projected to see a significant infusion of both global and Indian fashion & lifestyle retail names. The growth of multichannel commerce, which combines online and physical experiences, is also altering the business, with 60-65% of Indian customers selecting integrated shopping experiences.

A "fashion & lifestyle retail outlet" is a business that offers a variety of apparel, accessories, and occasionally home goods and other things, all under one brand or with a specific lifestyle concept in mind. It seeks to communicate a sense of ambitious living by linking the product with a specific lifestyle.

Kolkata is currently the seventh most populated city of India with a population of 14,035,959 in 2011 census having average literacy rate of 86.31% . It is also the 14th city in India in terms of Local Purchasing Power Index with Local Purchasing Power Index of 67.1 as per Numbeo . The fashion and retail business in Kolkata has greatly increased as a consequence of the creation of fashion and retail outlet stores such as Pantaloons, Reliance Trends, Shoppers Stop, Westside, Max, and Zudio. The principal reasons behind the growth of retail & fashion outlets in India can be attributed to factors like Fashion and Apparel Dominance, Increased Consumer Spending, Rise of Online Shopping, Investment in Textile Parks, Growth in Kids' Garment Manufacturing, Growth in Retail Leasing, Direct Selling Opportunities etc

STEP 2:

The Percent positions are found out -

Using the formula:

100 (Rij-0.5)/ Nj,

Where Rij= Rank given to the ith factor by jth individual and

Nj= Number of factors ranked by jth individual, the percent positions are found out.

For 1^{st} Rank = 100 (1 - 0.5) / 6 = 8.33

For 2nd Rank = 100 (2 - 0.5) / 6 = 25

For 3^{rd} Rank = 100 (3 - 0.5) / 6 = 41.67

For 4^{th} Rank = 100 (4 - 0.5) / 6 = 58.33

For 5^{th} Rank = 100 (5 - 0.5) / 6 = 75

For 6^{th} Rank = 100 (6 - 0.5) / 6 = 91.67

STEP 3

The Garrett Score is found out using the Percent Position using the Garrett Conversion Table:

| Percent Position & Garrett Score | | | | | | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------|---------------|--|--|--|--|--|
| Rank | Percent Position | Garrett Score | | | | | |

| 1 | 8.33 | 77 |

| 2 | 25 | 63 |
| 3 | 41.67 | 54 |
| 4 | 58.33 | 46 |
| 5 | 75 | 37 |
| 6 | 91.67 | 23 |

(Table2)

CONCLUSION:

The study is carried out with two specific objectives relating to customer perception regarding fashion & lifestyle retail outlets in Kolkata. It is seen that majority of the customers have considered Pantaloons to be the best retail outlet in Kolkata region. However a growing retail outlet under the Tata Group - Zudio, has been found to have ranked last among the selected outlets. Very reasonably the cause behind this ranking of retail stores can be attributed to the second finding of the study where respondents have ranked Product availability to be the most important factor and Price, Discount & offers as the fourth factor only. Actually Pantaloons is greatly known for its variety and Zudio is more known for price reasonability & great offers. Furthermore, the respondents in Kolkata city with urban background and choice for latest trends & variety have ranked factors like Product availability, staff availability & staff knowledge & store layout & ease of finding stock over Pricing & discount related factors.
